

THE DUBLIN AGREEMENT THAT WE ASK FOR: 10 RECOMMENDATIONS

We students from Italy, Croatia, Serbia and Slovenia, participants in the "Dublin, Shared Europe" project, expression of the civil society and of the youth, for the responsibility we feel towards ourselves, towards young people of today and tomorrow and towards our own community,

we ask for the elected representatives in the European Parliament, decision makers of young policies, the commitment to work together to achieve the objectives of the Dublin Regulation. Starting from these indications, we recommend the reflection for the adoption of the following measures:

1. Further expand the financial endowment and the types of employment of the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund, with the aim of ensuring to the member States the development of inclusion policies and interventions of deterrence in the countries of origin by strengthening the European development cooperation programs
2. Encourage and legally regulate the access of States to the aforementioned fund with respect for quality standards of hospitality: facilities, services, protection of rights
3. Referring to the guiding principles of the Union, promote cross-border solidarity in the redistribution of migrants between States, in proportion to the territory and their respective capacities
4. Strengthen the air and naval control of the routes, coordinating and facilitating the role of the military, commercial and non-governmental navies
5. Provide for the formulation of a shared European regulation of rescue at sea, in which the interests of all are safeguarded and the private governmental and non-governmental dimension are put in place
6. As part of the revision of the Dublin regulation, review the recognition policies of immigrants at the external borders of the Union, with binding rules for States, on the timing of examination and response to asylum requests

7. Facilitate safe transfer programs through humanitarian corridors promoted by European civil society
8. Activate, within the European programs, specific funding lines for intercultural education in schools and in society and the promotion of concrete inclusion activities by communities and local authorities
9. The phenomenon of decreased birth-rate requires European States to govern also the economic aspect of the immigration phenomenon and to develop national policies for the professional training of immigrants coherent with local development programs. Increase, within the European Programs, funding for calls on this specific objective
10. Promote greater action by the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, autonomous and alongside the participant States, in the development of bilateral cooperation agreements with countries of origin, for the control and governance of expatriations to the Union

Starting from these recommendations, we ask the administrators and representatives elected in the European Parliament, to work together for the construction of social, economic and cultural policies of our territories, to define an active, shared and responsible citizenship towards our entire community.
